Information Collection and Usage

Like many Internet Web sites, we collect different types of information in connection with the rendering of our services, the selling of our products and the administration of our Web site. We will not voluntarily disclose or sell any information we gather about you ("Personal Information") to third parties for solicitation or other reasons unless you consent, and except as otherwise provided below.

We will not sell your information to any third party. We do not SPAM, and adhere to strict Anti-SPAM policies. We may from time to time approach you regarding product, service, and other information, or offers which we feel, based on your Personal Information, may be of interest to you. If you do not wish to receive such information, you can contact us in the manner provided above. In addition, Personal Information may be released to third parties (i) if we are required by law to comply with a legal requirement, such as a law, regulation, search warrant, subpoena, or court order; (ii) if release of such information is required in connection with the maintenance and administration of our site; (iii) in the very rare circumstance in which we believe in good faith there is a threat to the physical security of you or others. Although it is PromptPrimaryCare.com/Snorend.com/DocSchmenke.com / Snorend.net's policy to attempt to require our third parties to whom we provide Personal Information to comply with our privacy policies, we cannot guarantee their compliance. Our additional practices and policies with respect to our collection and usage practices are addressed as follows.

Outside Ad Company

We may use an outside advertising or marketing company to display ads on our site. These ads may contain cookies. While we use cookies in other parts of our Web site, cookies received with banner ads are collected by our marketing company, and we do not have access to this information (For more information on our use of cookies, see the "Cookies" section below). In addition, our site may contain links to other Web sites. We do not endorse and are not responsible for the content of third-party Web sites accessed through our site or for any privacy practices with respect to such sites.

Cookies

We may use cookies on certain pages of our service. Cookies are small pieces of information that your Web browser places on your computer's hard drive. Cookies can help us personalize our Web site and provide information that is targeted to the interests of individual Users (so you don't see the same advertisements repeatedly). We may use cookies to deliver content specific to your interests, to save your password so you don't have to reenter it each time you visit our site, and for other purposes. Most Web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can change this feature in your browser. The User is always free to decline our cookies if his or her browser permits, although in that case the service may be largely unusable.

Regulatory Issues

Due to the existing regulatory environment, we cannot ensure that all of a User's private communications and other Personal Information will never be disclosed in ways not otherwise described in this Privacy Statement. By way of example (without limiting the foregoing), we may be forced to disclose information to the government or third parties under certain circumstances, or third parties may unlawfully intercept or access transmissions or private communications. Another example is that some pages of our web site are physically located on servers hosted by MyHosting.com, Infinite Creations, 1&1 Internet Hosting, and some sale processes are managed through Vendio.com and Paypal.com

You would see MyHosting.com's Privacy Policy

(<http://myhosting.com/Policy/PrivacyPolicy1.asp>), and Vendio.com's Privacy Policy (<http://www.vendio.com/privacy.html>)

Further, we can (and you authorize us to) disclose any information about you to law enforcement or other government officials as we, in our sole discretion, believe necessary or appropriate. Therefore, although we believe we use industry standard practices to protect our Users' privacy, we do not promise that their personally identifiable information or private communications can remain private.
